Hubert Leo Showers was born on October 16, 1935, to Coy (Lockwood) Showers and Lawrence Leo Showers in Leon, Iowa. He spent the first part of his life in Iowa where he met his future wife. On August 7, 1955, Hubert married Hazel L. Chipp. To that union, four children were born.

In 1958, they relocated to California where Hubert worked various jobs through the years from working at a dairy farm in Northern California, to training race horses in Southern California. Hubert became a minister in 1969 and retired in 2008. Hubert and Hazel moved to Nebraska in August of 2010 where he spent his remaining days. Hubert loved the outdoors, hunting, riding horses, and most of all his family. Hubert loved to sit and visit with people and tell old stories. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather and friend.

Those preceding him in death include his mother, Coy Showers, father Lawrence Showers, son Jeffrey Showers, brothers Dean and Charles Showers, and his sister Elsie Stackhouse.
