Box Score

CHADRON – Taylor Sturms and Andi Weber each had 17 kills and the Colorado Christian volleyball team shrugged off a first set loss en route to their 23-25, 25-16, 25-11, 25-14 Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference victory over Chadron State Friday in Armstrong Gymnasium.

Chadron State will host Colorado School of Mines tonight (Saturday) in another RMAC match. First serve is set for 5 p.m.

The Eagles, now 3-11 overall and 1-4 in the conference, led the entire first set – they hit .122 in the frame – but they were unable to get things going the remainder of the match as their hitting percentage dropped each subsequent set.

However, there were six lead changes and nine ties in the final three sets, but CCU (11-4, 2-3 RMAC) served six aces and hit .250 for the match to claim the win.

Sturms and Andi Weber led all attackers with 17 kills apiece but they also provided solid defense. Sturms had a match-high 16 digs while Andi Weber had 13.

They also received help from Ali Weber with nine kills and Summer Greager with seven more.

Also for CCU, Jordan Carswell had a match-high 48 set assists and Jaclyn Miller served three aces.

Mallory Irvine led Chadron State with 10 kills and had a hitting percentage of .304. She also assisted on three blocks.

Mollie Jones had nine kills and three assisted blocks and Erika Roybal had five kills.

Also for Chadron State, Jessica Jester had five blocks, Justine Ackie had 17 set assists and Kristina Harter had 14 digs.
