Donald Dean Krueger was born on April 12, 1930 to Ervin and Wilma (Waldron) Krueger in Hay Springs, Nebraska. He passed away on November 17, 2013 at the Pioneer Manor Nursing Home in Hay Springs. He was 83.

Dean attended school at District 60 through the 8th grade and then attended Hay Springs High School, graduating in 1947. On June 6, 1951 he married Clara Mae Talbot. To this union, two children were born; Bruce in 1954 and Tamara in 1958.

Dean was drafted into the Army on January 30, 1952. He was stationed in Germany for 17 months during the Korean era. He was honorably discharged on January 6, 1954. Dean then began farming and worked on his own until going to work for Charlie Gaswick at the Gamble store from 1956 to 1957. He lived on the Luneberg farm from 1957 to 1958. Dean then decided to attend college in Denver, Colorado at the Colorado School of Trade for gunsmithing.

Upon returning from school, Dean opened a gun shop in Crawford, Nebraska. He operated it until going to work for the Cornhusker State Telephone Company in 1961. He worked for the telephone company until retiring in 1981.

Dean was preceded in death by his parents; Wife, Clara Mae and Brother Dwayne.
