Margorie Ann Luchsinger passed away Tuesday, March 19, 2013 at Crestview Care Center.

Margorie was born May 20, 1932 in Julesburg, Colorado to Fran and Martha Nave Rose. Until 1949, Margorie lived throughout the panhandle area until finally settling down south of Hemmingford, she then began attending Chadron Prep School. During her time at Chadron Prep School, Margorie took a part in cheerleading, sextette, Student Council, Football Queen Attendant, and the Glee Club. She graduated from Chadron Prep School in May of 1952.

Margorie married Robert Luchsinger August 31, 1952. January 29, 1958 Margorie and Robert were blessed with their daughter, Roseann. In 1959, the couple moved to McHenry Road, in 1973 they built their current home.

Margorie was employed at Singer fabric store, L.B. Murphy, and Anderson's clothing store. Marge enjoyed gardening, square dancing, and playing cards. Margorie's greatest work included sewing prom and wedding dresses. Some of her hobbies included singing and playing the piano.

Margorie was an active member of the First Congregational Church. She took great joy and pleasure in her family, friends, and colleagues. She always made time for flowers and music.

She was preceded in death by her parents Fran and Ethel Rose and Martha Naeve. As well as her brothers, Fred Rose, Bill Rose, sister Sharon Lawson, and twin sister Margaret Chamberlain.
