Mr. Hewitt passed away on February 10, 2013 at his home in Whitney.

David was born on November 23, 1964 in Chadron, Nebraska to Vern and Evelyn Hewitt. David grew up in Chadron where he attended school from kindergarten to a sophomore in College. While he was in college, he followed his dream of being a horseman and began his career at Fort Robinson State Park as a wrangler. He, at that time was following his love of music while playing drums for his big brother, Lawrence in the Powder River Band. They traveled throughout Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming and South Dakota. Many people came to listen to him play and sing. Being the humble man he was he never thought that he could play or sing well. David is preceded in death by his father, the late Vern Hewitt.
