(Wyo.)-Federal Agency Reminds Hunters Of Fire Danger

By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 09/26/2012 09:19 AM

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) - The U.S. Forest Service is reminding hunters to be aware of the threat of wild fires as dry conditions continue in much of Wyoming.

Fire restrictions remain in effect in much of the state. Even in areas where fires are allowed, the Forest Service says campers should use caution when building and maintaining campfires.

Campers should make sure their campfires are thoroughly extinguished before leaving them unattended.
