(Neb.)-EMS Training Workshops Offered In Panhandle

By: Chris Fankhauser Posted at: 09/28/2012 10:54 AM

(Crawford)-The Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services' Emergency Medical Services Program offers ongoing training workshops across the state for emergency medical technicians, first responders, and the general public. There are two workshops in the local area during the month of October.

More information on the workshops is available at the DHHS EMS calendar web page. You may also click on the subscribe link at the top of the EMS workshop calendar web page to sign up for an email or a text message alert when the EMS workshop calendar is updated.

The free workshops are worth three continuing education hours. A workshop will be held in Crawford on October 25, with the topic Skills Night. It will be held at the Crawford Fire Hall, 220 Elm St., with presenters Glen Eberspecher & Robby Rhembrandt, from 6pm - 9pm. For more information on this workshop, contact Jack Galt at 308-665-5134

In Sidney, the workshop will be held on October 16, with a topic of Advanced Airways. It will be held at Emergency Response Care, 714 Osage St., with presenter Ward Kirchau, from 6pm - 9pm. For more information, contact Shawn Baumgartner at 308-641-0155.
