(Neb.)-Political Forum Set For Next Wednesday

By: Chris Fankhauser Posted at: 10/10/2012 11:04 AM

(Chadron)-Election day is sneaking up once again, and there may still be many people who are not sure who to vote for. Stereo AM 610 KCSR and The Chadron Record are hoping to shed a little light on the candidates and current topics when they host the Political Forum at Chadron State College next week.

The forum has been held during major elections as a way to help inform those in the Nebraska portion of the listening area as to where the candidates stand on important issues of the day. Questions are submitted to moderators who ask the questions to the candidates. The forum is open to the public, and will also be broadcast on Great Plains Cable channel 20.

Those wishing to attend can do so on Wednesday evening, October 17, with the event beginning at 6:30. It will be held in the Scottsbluff Room of the Student Center on the Chadron State College campus. Anyone wishing to submit questions prior to the forum can email them to kcsr@chadrad.com. Questions can also be asked that evening by writing them on cards provided at the location, or calling in to a number to be announced that night.

For more on the forum, listen to KCSR Live @ 4 this afternoon as our very own Dennis Brown will be visiting with Andrew Lacy about the event.
