CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) - The State Canvassing Board has certified Wyoming's election results.

The board met Wednesday at the State Capitol in Cheyenne. It certified the Nov. 6 state election results in the races for president, vice president, U.S. senator, U.S. representative, judicial offices, legislative offices and the votes on the state's three proposed constitutional amendments.

The board members are Gov. Matt Mead, Secretary of State Max Maxfield, State Auditor Cynthia Cloud and State Treasurer Mark Gordon.
