(S.D.)-Forest Recreation Passes On Sale

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 12/03/2012 11:11 AM

(Custer, SD) - In celebration of the holiday season, Black Hills National Forest season passes for 2013 will be available for one day, Friday, December 7th, 2012 at 50% off of the regular season price according to Rick Hudson, Black Hills National Forest. No other discounts will apply with this half-price sale.

"This is our annual season pass sale making them the perfect gift idea for the 2012 Christmas season," said Ty Gerbracht, Operations Manager for Forest Recreation Management (FRM), the Forest's campground concession company, headquartered in Hill City, SD.

Passes will be available at half price at the following Black Hills National Forest offices: Forest Supervisor's Office in Custer, Mystic Ranger District in Rapid City, Northern Hills Ranger District in Spearfish, and Bearlodge Ranger District in Sundance, WY

The half-price sale will not be combined with any other discounts. The 2013 regular season rates remain unchanged and are as follows: Standard Passes will be $20.00 and includes all FRM operated facilities except the Sheridan and Pactola complexes. Premium Passes will be $30.00 and includes all FRM, Inc. operated facilities.
