(CHADRON)-The Panhandle Women's Ministry is planning an exciting event for women around the Panhandle in February. The program "Tea Time With The Lord: Jesus Lover of My Soul" is coming to the Chadron Arts Center on Sunday, February 3rd. The event, which begins at 2:00 p.m., is designed to be an afternoon of fellowship for ladies of all ages and backgrounds.

Sue Pavlick of Chadron will present a message of inspiration, and the Chadron Methodist Church Hand Bell Choir will perform. Background music on the piano will be provided by Carol Halfhide. There will also be a time for prayer and sharing. Women are encouraged to bring their favorite teacup/mug for enjoying a light refreshment.

The Arts Center is located at the corner of 5th and King Sts. in Chadron. Admission will be one non-perishable food item to be given to the local food pantry.

The Panhandle Women's Ministry was started in 2010 by women throughout the area from various backgrounds, ethnicities, ages, and religions in an attempt to tear down the walls keeping them apart. It is their desire to unite women in the Panhandle region together in effort to share and spread the Word of God. Their hope is that with each conversation and activity, the Lord will be glorified and lives will be forever changed as they accept Him as their Savior. Since its beginning, the group has sponsored simulcasts of Christian speakers, a New Year's Tea, and a Garden Party. For more information, visit www.facebook.com/groups/Panhandlewomen.
