By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 01/18/2013 02:57 PM

(CRAWFORD)-For those out there who haven't yet attended a Country Music Jamboree at the Crawford Eagles Club, maybe the time has come. Every third Sunday, musicians and the like, as well as those who just enjoy such things, come together for a rollicking good time. Volunteer co-manager Marietta Moffatt-Richardson says the music plays and the doors are, figuratively at least, always open.

Moffatt-Richardson says the event draws talent from a variety of places.

The event's been going strong for years now.

She says she and her husband Frank enjoy helping out at the Eagles and ensuring that the music will continue.

The jamboree will take place this Sunday, January 20th, at the Crawford Eagles Club on Second Street. There is a noon buffet available for a nominal charge, and the music begins at 1:00 p.m. The fun usually lasts until about 5:00 p.m. If you have any questions about the jamboree, give the Eagles Club a call at 665-2678.
