(Neb.)-Chadron Police Respond To Two Separate Animal Attacks (Updated)

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 03/04/2013 02:29 PM

(Chadron)-According to the Chadron Police Department, on Sunday, March 3rd, Kellie D. Smith had been issued a citation for an animal biting a dog at the Regency Trailer Court.

A report advised that there were two dogs at large at Regency Trailer Court 123 prior to the citation being issued.

In a separate incident on March 3rd, the Chadron Police Department responded to a call of a female subject being bitten while out on a walk on North Mears Street.

No further information is being released at this time as the investigation is ongoing.

Previous story reported bite was to unnamed subject. The Chadron Police Department further updated KCSR News that the bite was to a dog and that the report did not originally clarify that.
