(Neb.)-Sheridan County Commissioners To Meet Monday Morning

By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 02/25/2013 07:28 AM

(SHERIDAN COUNTY)-The Sheridan County Commissioners will meet at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, February 25th, in the Commissioners Room of the Sheridan County Courthouse.

At 9:00 a.m., Kris Ferguson and Trisha Loosevelt will provide information about progress being made by Cowboy Trail West, Inc. toward their goal of seeing portions of the Cowboy Trail completed in Sheridan County.

At 9:45 a.m., following information presented by Highway Superintendent Tom Kuester, County Assessor Trudy Winter will present concerns about the Assessors budget.

At approximately 10:30 a.m., the commissioners will recess as the County Board and convene as the Board of Equalization to review valuation correction sheets presented by the county assessor.

A public hearing will commence at 11:00 a.m. for the presentation of the proposed Black Tailed Prairie Dog Management Plan followed by consideration of a resolution to adopt the plan.

At 11:30 a.m. Sheriff Terry Robbins will be on hand to participate in a scheduled conference call with county budget consultant Pete Peterson. The purpose of the call is to gather information about usage options and legal requirements of using funds derived from Wireless E911 and E911 phone taxes.

This is by no means a complete agenda and is presented as a means to inform the public of some items that may be of particular interest to citizens. A complete agenda is kept continuously current in the office of the Sheridan county clerk and can be amended up to 24 hours prior to the meeting. Minutes of previous meetings can be found at www.sheridancountynebraska.com. All meetings are open to the public and visitors are always welcome.
