(Neb.)-Kerrey Unlikely To Run For Johannis Senate Seat

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) - Democrat Bob Kerrey says he has no plans to run for the U.S. Senate seat Mike Johannis will vacate in 2015, and that's extremely unlikely to change.

Kerrey said Tuesday he intends to remain a private citizen after losing to Republican Deb Fischer in last year's U.S. Senate race. Johannis announced Monday that he won't run for re-election, so he can spend more time with family.

Kerrey praised Johannis' service to the state, and he says he understands why Johannis decided not to run again.

Kerrey is a former Nebraska governor, and he represented the state in the U.S. Senate for two terms.

Kerrey says it's nearly impossible that he will run for the Johannis' Senate seat in 2014.
