(S.D.)-Veteran Reunion To Be Held In Hot Springs During 'Honoring Our Heroes' Festivities

By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 07/15/2013 09:45 AM

(BLACK HILLS)-All eras of veterans, current service members and their families are invited to attend the VA Black Hills Health Care System's (BHHCS) All Veteran Reunion in Hot Springs at the Mueller Civic Center on Saturday, August 3rd.

There will be an information and benefits fair from 3:00-5:00 p.m., a free picnic for veterans, service members and families from 5:00-6:30 p.m., and a tribute program to our nation's heroes and their families from 6:30-8:30 p.m. All reunion activities will be at the Mueller Civic Center. The public is encouraged to join during the tribute program, which will include a welcome message from South Dakota Secretary of Veterans Affairs Larry Zimmerman, a patriotic address by retired Colonel Kim Henningsen, and a salute to our heroes, their families, and the fallen. The evening will wrap up with musical selections representing the various generations, brought to the group by the Potter family.

VA BHHCS is excited to host the All Veteran Reunion during the Hot Springs community sponsored event, "Honoring Our Heroes," which will occur July 31st-August 4th.

For more information on the reunion, contact coordinator Lori Vosika at 605-745-2000, ext. 2176.
