(CHADRON)-The Feast of the Hunter's Moon is scheduled to take place nearly a month earlier than normal at the Museum of the Fur Trade this weekend. Director Gail DeBuse Potter explains why the event, which is a fundraiser for the museum that usually takes place the end of October, was moved to an earlier time in the fall.

DeBuse Potter says the feast will include a wide variety of foods, both unusual and traditional.

In addition to the food, DeBuse Potter said there will also be unique drinks, such Cherry Bounce and Hailstorms, a drink that has been around since 1809.

The food will be served starting at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday. Individuals are encouraged to park at the Alpha School and ride the free shuttle to the museum. The Bald Mountain Rounders bluegrass band will provide evening entertainment beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Tickets are still available for advance purchase and will not be available at the door. They are $20 a piece and can be purchased at First National Bank of Chadron, First National Bank of North Platte, Security First Bank in Chadron, and the Chadron Chamber of Commerce, or call the Fur Trade Museum at 308-432-3843.
