For the second time in three years, Riley Pruitt of Gering won the tie down roping at Crawford's Old West Trails Rodeo on July 3-4. He completed his run in 9.7 seconds Thursday night to win $969. He also won the event in 2011, when his time was 8.2 seconds. He's been the only tie down roper to complete his run in less than 10 seconds either year.

Pruitt was the only Nebraska cowboy to earn a paycheck at this year's Crawford rodeo as a bulk of the placewinners were from Colorado, Wyoming and South Dakota. However, a Nebraska cowgirl, June Holeman of Arcadia, placed sixth in the barrel race, which drew 52 entries.

The event winners beside Pruitt included two South Dakotans. K.C. Longbrake of Eagle Butte, S.D., scored 80 points to win the saddle bronc riding and Brad Johnson of Reva led the steer wrestlers in 4.3 seconds. Both earned more than $1,100.

Two Texans also won events. Shannon Witcher of Higgins was the barrel racing winner and Jesse Pohlmann of Gonzalez, Texas, was the only one of the 20 bullriders to make the 8-second whistle. Zach Curran of Pavillion, Wyo., scored 77 points to win top honors in bareback riding.
