(Neb.)-Transportation to 6-man championship in Kearney

By: Andrew Lacy Posted at: 11/06/2012 10:34 AM

Some folks in Harrison have lined up a tour bus to take Sioux County fans to the six man football state championship Friday night in Kearney.

Organizers would like to have at least 55 people commit at a cost of $50 per person. If fewer people commit, the cost would be higher. The bus will depart Harrison at 10:30 a.m. Friday and return late Friday night/early Saturday morning following the game.

The 368 mile trip will take roughly 5 1/2 hours each way and is allowing enough time for stops along the way. People are encouraged to bring coolers with snacks and refreshments for the trip.

Organizers need to know how many people are going by 10:30 a.m. Wednesday. If you have any questions or are interested in going, contact Zanya Faint at 308-668-2445 (day) or 308-668-2287 (evening or night), or Dennis Murphy at 308-668-2369 or at 308-665-5969.

Sioux County will play Wauneta-Palisade for the championship at UNK Friday night starting at 6 p.m. MT on FM 107.7 KBPY.
