The Chadron girls golf team sat in fourth place after the first round of the state golf tournament at Quail Run in Columbus Monday with a team score of 394.

Kelli Haynes was fourth among individuals with a first round 87, five shots behind leader McKenna Kime of Grand Island Central Catholic.

Kortney Hageman posted a 100 for the Lady Cardinals after shooting a solid 46 on the front nine, but struggling to a 54 on the back. Cali Crile had another good round, finishing at 101. Taylor Strotheide shot a 106 and Haleigh Shuck signed for a 117.

Head Coach Curt Holmquist said the weather could play a major role today, with temperatures almost 20 degrees colder than yesterday and north winds, which Holmquist said is a bad direction for the course.
