Hyannis Athletic Director Bruce Parish has been recognized as the District 6 athletic administrator of the year by the Nebraska State Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association.

Parish took over as the AD and principal for Hyannis after 19 years in Chadron and one year in Bayard. He has also worked as Youth Sports Director at the U.S. Air Force Academy and as a coach in Brighton, Colo. for 13 years.

Parish has previously been honored with the Nebraska State Educators Association Community Service Award and Teacher of the Year while at Chadron. He also received the State Award of Merit in 2008.

Aside from his duties at Hyannis, Parish currently serves as the awards/hall of fame representative on the NSIAAA board and the chairman of NSAA District 6. He's also a certified NSAA softball and American Legion baseball umpire.
