Four Chadron basketball players have been named to the all Western Conference team.

Ashlea Kerr leads the girls selections after being named first team all-state by the Omaha World Herald over the weekend. She is joined on the all conference team by fellow Lady Cardinals Peyton Hinn and Briley Hannaford, who earned all-state honorable mentions. The Chadron girls went undefeated against Nebraska opponents in the regular season on their way to a 23-4 record and a trip to the state semifinal.

Spencer Eliason is Chadron's lone representative on a boys all conference team led by three Scottsbluff players, including Class B player of the year Michael Hadden. Scottsbluff finished the season with a 23-6 record, losing to South Sioux City in the state championship.

Bailea Kerr and Ashlyn Eitemiller earned honorable mentions for the Chadron girls, while Vonsinh Sayaloune and Bo Westlake were honorable mentions for the boys.

The Western Conference consists of Chadron, Scottsbluff, Gering, Alliance, Sidney and Mitchell.
