(Neb.)-2014-15 Football Schedules Released

By: Andrew Lacy Posted at: 02/12/2014 11:19 AM

The Nebraska School Activities Association released schedules for the 2014 and 2015 high school football seasons on Wednesday morning.

Chadron will face a tougher schedule than in recent seasons with Alliance and Ainsworth being dropped as opponents and being replaced by Sidney and Broken Bow, two teams that both made the second round of the playoffs in 2013.

The Cardinals will open with a road game at Sidney, then return home for games against Gering and Valentine. They'll visit Broken Bow in week four then face Ogallala at home and Mitchell on the road. They finish the regular season at home against Chase County and at Gordon-Rushville then have a bye in the final week before the playoffs.

Hay Springs drops Hemingford and Mullen from its schedule in favor of Garden County and South Platte. The only opponent change for Crawford will be South Platte replacing Creek Valley. Hemingford will play almost an entirely different schedule with Crawford, Morrill and Sutherland as the only returning opponents.

Teams will play identical schedules in 2015 with home and road games reversed.
