(Neb.)-Updated: Chadron State football adds 27 on National Signing Day

By: Andrew Lacy Posted at: 02/05/2014 11:24 AM

CHADRON - The Chadron State College football team has received 27 signed National Letters of Intent, head coach Jay Long announced Wednesday during National Signing Day.

Long, who guided the Eagles to an 8-3 record and a second place finish in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, is pleased with the incoming class.

"I am extremely proud of the hard work that our coaches, team, and Chadron State College staff committed to help sign this year's recruiting class," Long said. "When a recruit is choosing a school he is looking for a place that is the right fit for him. The Chadron State football family did a great job showcasing our school, program and community."

"Every year our goal is to sign top players at each position that will go to work every day and compete to make themselves and our team better. I feel that we did a great job addressing our team needs, and I can't wait to see this class develop into Eagles."

Long also said he expects more than a dozen student-athletes to join the Eagles as walk-ons. Those walk-ons have signed Institutional Letters of Intent and have verbally committed to play football this upcoming fall.

"In addition to the guys who signed an NLI we several student-athletes sign a Chadron State College Letter of Intent to commit to our team as a walk-on in the fall," Long added. "Our program has been founded on giving opportunities and I look forward to these student athletes taking this opportunity to make us a better team in the future."

The 27 commits hail from 10 states. Sixteen are defensive players and 11 are on offense.

Five players from Nebraska have signed NLIs. They include local products TD Stein and Tyler Regier, Hay Springs linebacker Steven Horrocks, Sidney offensive lineman Tucker Wintholz and Norfolk defensive lineman Kyle Temple. Stein, the son of Chadron State offensive coordinator Chris Stein, is a quarterback, while Regier is an offensive lineman.

The states of South Dakota and Wyoming combined to have eight recruits. Two of the South Dakota commits are Rapid City products - wide receiver Jacob Henderson and defensive lineman Aaron Beard. The other player from South Dakota is Kadoka running back Chandler Sudbeck.

The Wyoming recruits are Newcastle linebacker Merritt Crabtree, safety Kirk Durtsche, Casper offensive lineman Jake Geil and linebacker Brad Gillis, and Burns offensive lineman Travis Romsa.

Colorado has two signees. Leo Salcido is a defensive tackle from Greeley and offensive lineman Austin Roper is from Greenwood.

The other states with multiple recruits are California and Florida. Three are from California. They are defensive back Brandon Finona-Gardner of Monterey, defensive back Jevan Hogan of Turlock and offensive lineman Adam Fuselier of Encino.

All five Florida student-athletes are defensive players. They are Fort Walton Beach teammates Carl Pfeifer, a defensive lineman, and Gabe DeToro, a defensive back, Belleview defensive back Tamarus LeCorn, Fort Lauderdale cornerback John Mertilus and Haines City defensive tackle Eric Goll.

Four additional recruits are from Washington, Virginia, Wisconsin and Idaho. They are wide receiver Max Gray of Arlington, Wash., cornerback Zecharie James of Hampton, Va., wide receiver Matt Reader of Appleton, Wis., and defensive lineman Sam Smartt of Caldwell, Idaho.
