Sandy Sauser went to be with the Lord on February 25, 2013, at CrestviewCareCenter in Chadron, after a 3-month battle with Cancer. She was born on October 22, 1950 in Rapid City, South Dakota.

Sandy was an artist, writer, poet, sister, aunt and friend. She created exquisite beadwork, and enjoyed music, drawing, photography and many other arts and crafts. She was a great listener who never judged, and would give all she could to people in need. Sandy touched those who knew her with her humor and acceptance, and will be missed very much.
