Walter died Thursday, January 3, 2013, at the Pioneer Manor Nursing Home in Hay Springs, Nebraska. Walt was born May, 17, 1917 in Mooringsport, Louisiana, and was raised in Peatown, Texas.

Walter served in the Army-Air Corps. In WWII, as a pilot and flew a B-24 "Liberator" bomber. Walter as a pilot was responsible for a crew of 10 men. But he really didn't like to talk about it,

After his service in 1951, he married Venita (Carlton) in Amarillo, Texas, as a floor tile layer they traveled all over, from Texas to California.

In California he became a minister, which was his first love. He also loved fishing and golfing and making beautiful nature pictures with 1/8 inch pieces of tile. He was also a dedicated husband and father.

Walt is preceded in death by his wife Venita; two sons, Stewart Mooring, of Huron, South Dakota and Harry Tipps of San Diego, California; his parents Walter and Vallie Lee Mooring, One brother, and One sister.

Immediate Survivors:

Sons: Dwight (Jeanie) Mooring of Cedar Crest, NM; Duane (Loretta) Mooring of Hamilton, NJ.

Daughter: Fran (Vern) Platt of Hay Springs, NE.

Numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Chamberlain Drabbels Mortuary of Hay Springs is in charge of arrangements.
