RAPID CITY, S.D. (ASSOCIATED PRESS) - Authorities in Rapid City say they believe an early morning shooting that left one man dead and another man injured was a home invasion and robbery,

Officers responded to Riley Court trailer park before 5:00 a.m. Tuesday.

Police say the alleged intruder beat the homeowner, 69-year-old Thomas Wilson, severely with a blunt object before the homeowner shot him several times.

Police have identified the man who died from the gunshot wounds as 21-year-old Dallas Two Bulls.

Wilson was treated at the hospital for serious injuries.

Police say the case is still in its early stages and remains under investigation.
