(Chadron)- The Nebraska State College System on Tuesday announced its two finalists for the presidency of Chadron State College. They are Dr. Randy Rhine of Chadron, who has served as interim president at Chadron State since May, and Dr. Guy Mills, president of Northwest Kansas Technical College at Goodland. The two will greet the public in the Sandoz Center on Tuesday, Nov. 13. The first question-and-answer session will be for Mills at 4:30-5:15 p.m. Rhine's will follow at 5:30-6:15 p.m. The presidency at Chadron State became vacant with the retirement of Dr. Janie Park on May 11.
