(Chadron)-Some people look forward to January because the holidays are over. Others look forward to the Super Bowl. Still others look forward to an event most often broadcast on television from Las Vegas, Nevada. KCSR and KBPY listeners will be able to have a front row seat to events taking place at the Miss America Pageant next week as Chris Fankhauser will cover the activities beginning January 8 and running through the pageant, which will take place on Saturday evening, January 12.

Miss Nebraska 2012 Mariah Cook has family in Crawford, and is a student at Chadron State College, and has many local ties through friends and family. KCSR/KBPY will take this journey with Mariah and report back on the events of the week. Each day, live reports will be filed from Las Vegas, along with pictures posted on chadrad.com. Interviews will also be conducted with Mariah and other contestants for the crown.

Miss America 2012 Laura Kaeppler, who is from Wisconsin, will also be on hand during the pageant activities. These reports will only be available on KCSR, KBPY and Chadrad.com.
