(Chadron)-County Government Day will be celebrated on Tuesday (November 13th) at the Dawes County Courthouse.

The program, which will be held in the district court room at 9:00 a.m., will recognize all of those who hold positions within the county and consist of introducing all county, school, and legion officials. Speaker for the event will be attorney Randy Cullers, as he will speak at a luncheon held at the American Legion at noon.

In the afternoon participants will be able to view district court and follow up with questions for Judge Travis O’Gorman. The County Government Day program is scheduled to run through 3:30 p.m.
