SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb. (AP) - A Scottsbluff man is facing drug charges after police arrested him with nearly a half pound of marijuana and several other drugs.

Reports indicate 37-year-old Glenn Condon was arrested Friday. Besides marijuana, police say the Scottsbluff man had a dozen oxycodone pills and a small amount of cocaine.

Court documents say Condon was arrested after police stopped his pickup truck and smelled the odor of marijuana.

Condon was being held Monday on $130,000 bond.
