(Chadron)-Thanksgiving is now a memory, and most people in the listening area are gearing up for the Christmas holiday. One event in Chadron has become a very fun and family friendly activity during this time. The annual KCSR/KBPY Parade of Lights will be taking place next weekend to help encourage holiday cheer.

As always, there is no entry fee for the parade. All entities are welcome to enter, from businesses to organizations to churches. Entries need not be from Chadron, and people from other communities are welcome and encouraged to enter as well.

There will be three prizes awarded this year. First prize will be $75 along with $50 in Chadron Chamber Bucks. Second prize will be $50 with $30 in Chamber Bucks. Third prize will be $25 and $20 in Chamber bucks.

Entries can be obtained by going to chadrad.com and clicking on the link at the bottom of the home page. They must be returned no later than noon on December 7. The parade itself will take place on December 8 at 6:30 pm, with the Main Street route beginning at 1st Street, and running to 5th Street. There will also be organizations set up along the parade route selling refreshments.

Anyone with questions on the parade can contact the KCSR/KBPY business office at 432-5545, or email questions to kcsr@chadrad.com
