(Chadron)-The Chadron School Board selected its President, Vice-President, and Secretary at Monday night's meeting. Sandy Roes was chosen as President, Terri Haynes was named Vice-President, and Sara Taylor was recognized as the Board Secretary.

Gary Hoffman was sworn in as new school board member as well on Monday night.

Chadron Schools Superintendent Dr. Caroline Winchester had her contract rolled over through July of 2016, citing a good evaluation from the board.

Also a hot subject at last night's meeting was the impact the new Ipads are having on students. The Chadron School Administration felt that overall the students' progress is being well documented, and in general students are performing better.
