

(Neb.)-Chadron Schools Bring Back FFA Listen

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 03/13/2013 01:42 PM

(Chadron)- Chadron Schools Superintendent Dr. Caroline Winchester announced at Monday evenings school board meeting that the Chadron school district would be reinstating Ag Education and the Future Farmers of America program, also known as FFA. Winchester tells KCSR news what is being done to begin offering Ag Education and FFA.

Sound In Story

In addition, Chadron State College will feature Ag Education classes that they are opening up to CHS students.

Sound In Story

Winchester says that because of the collaboration between CSC and the high school, these new classes will enhance the CHS curriculum.

Sound In Story

Pending approval from the Chadron school board, the classes and FFA program will begin in the fall semester of 2013.