

(Neb.)-February Is Nebraska 4-H Month Listen

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 02/06/2013 03:53 PM

(Chadron)- February celebrates 4-H month in the state of Nebraska. 4-H is a program that has been around for more than 100 years and is dedicated to helping youth and their families become proactive members of their communities.

University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension Educator Scott Cotton tells KCSR News what Nebraska 4-H Month means to this program and state.

Sound in Story

Extension Educator Erin Smith also spoke with KCSR News about what will be taking place in recognition of 4-H month in DawesCounty.

Sound in Story

Smith says that with Nebraska being a rural state, it creates a unique opportunity for those who join.

Sound in Story

Cotton says that if anyone is interested in involvement with 4-H just to contact the UNL-Extension office at 432-3373.