

(Neb.)-State Park To Host Outdoor Discovery Program

By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 04/15/2013 08:20 AM

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) - Nebraska families can discover the fun of a variety of outdoor activities at a special event next month.

On May 11, Fort Kearny State Recreation Area will let people of all ages try a variety of outdoor activities for free.

The activities include kayaking, archery, shotgun shooting, sling shots and campground games.

There will also be a s'more-eating contest and an educational program about Nebraska's mountain lions.