(Chadron)- The 2013 Dawes County Fair is truly a fair with something for everyone. Monday, August 5th will feature the Dawes County Youth Rodeo at the Dawes County Fairgrounds. Terri Lemmon, one of the youth rodeo organizers says that this year will be the same fun, with a little adjusting to the schedule.

Lemmon talks about the “Little Buckaroos” that rodeo goers will see, and the events they will participate in.

Lemmon also highlights the “Older Buckaroos” who will perform later in the evening.

Lemmon gives those interested the information they need to pre-register for the rodeo.

All of the events for the Dawes County Youth Rodeo are free of charge. For more information call Terri Lemmon at 430-5499 or visit dawescountyfair.com.
