(CHADRON)-The Chadron Chamber of Commerce is ready to get the party started for their second annual Monday Night Football Fundraiser taking place this fall. Every Monday night, beginning this Monday, September 9th and finishing Monday, December 23rd, the Chamber will be giving away $50 in Chamber Bucks to one lucky winner each week. Chamber executive director Collette Fernandez says Chamber Bucks are used just like cash, and they're the Chamber's way of keeping funds local.

Individuals who would like to participate in the football fundraiser are encouraged to stop by the Chamber and purchase a play book for $25. Fernandez says it's easy to play along; you don't even have to be knowledgeable in the workings of football to keep track each week.

Thanks to this year's sponsors, Fernandez says each of the 17 Monday night games will pay out Chamber Bucks to one winner.

Not only is the football fundraiser for fun, says Fernandez, but it also is a great way to support the Chamber and its activities.
