(CHADRON)-A first-time Chadron State College event called Advising Week will begin Monday, Oct. 28, and run through Friday, Nov. 1 for on-campus undergraduate students who are not yet registered for spring.

Sherry Douglas, senior director of student services, said, "The intent of Advising Week is to encourage students to meet their academic advisors and build their spring 2014 class schedules. We felt that designing a formal, focused week would assist with this effort."

On Monday and Friday, students will be able to see advisors in their respective academic department buildings between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. unless otherwise noted in an e-mail sent via Eagle Mail.

On Tuesday, advisors will be available in the Reta E. King Library from 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m., and they will also be available on Wednesday in the Student Center from 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. On Thursday, advisors will be available in the Gold Room from 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

Questions about Advising Week should be directed to the START Office at 308-432-6060.
