(Chadron)-Congressman Adrian Smith will be in the KCSR/KBPY listening area tomorrow (Thursday), meeting with area residents to discuss livestock losses due to the blizzard.

Smith will be in Chadron Thursday morning, meeting with people at First National Bank of Chadron at 10 am. He will travel to Harrison in the afternoon, participating in the Community Halloween Celebration at 2:30, and meeting with others at 3:30 pm. Both the celebration and meeting will be held at Security First Bank.

Members of the public are welcome and invited to attend and visit with the Congressman regarding their losses due to the storm.
