LINGLE, Wyo. (ASSOCIATED PRESS) - The Wyoming Highway Patrol is asking the public for information about a hit and run accident that killed a Lingle man.

The patrol says 69-year-old Keith Beers was struck and killed Sunday evening while walking in a crosswalk across U.S. 85. The driver of the vehicle failed to stop.

This crash remains under investigation. The patrol is asking anyone with information about the driver or the vehicle to contact the agency.
