

(Neb.)-Chadron Woman Found Unresponsive In Home

By: Chris Fankhauser Posted at: 11/04/2013 11:54 AM

(Chadron)-The Dawes County Attorney/Coroner was called to a residence on North Main in Chadron on Monday morning after a call to the Chadron Police Department of an unresponsive woman. According to a press release from the office of the Coroner, Vance Haug responded to the call at approximately 8:50 am.

The release states that 42-year-old resident Leah Hymen was found to be unresponsive this morning (Monday) when a neighbor called 911 for assistance. An autopsy and toxicology screening have been ordered and will take place in Scottsbluff tomorrow (Tuesday) at 1:00 p.m.

Further information will be released when available and deemed appropriate.

(Information courtesy Dawes County Attorney's Office)