GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. – The Chadron State softball team fell to the University of Colorado Mesa in a double header on Saturday, 8-1 and 6-0.

In the first game the Eagles struggled at the plate and managed only four hits.

Katie Londo went 1-3 for the Eagles and had an RBI.

Taylor Gross went 3-3 for the Mavericks, while adding three RBI's.

During the second game both teams struggled at the plate, as there were only 10 hits in the game.

Katie Londo and Amy Schartz both picked up one hit a piece.

The Eagles wrap up the regular season Sunday with another double header against the Mavericks.
