The Chadron volleyball team needed just three sets Thursday to win their first match of the season, sweeping Gordon-Rushville, 25-11, 25-7, 25-19.

Senior Ashlea Kerr returned to the court just six months after knee surgery to lead the Cardinals with 12 of their 39 kills. Peyton Hinn added nine of her own, while Maaryn Davis chipped in seven kills and six aces. Jayden Garrett set up the offense effectively with 35 assists.

Chadron's next match will be Tuesday in Alliance.
