FORT COLLINS, Colo. – Five Colorado State University players scored in double figures and the Rams shot over 50 percent from the field en route to their 93-50 win over Chadron State College Thursday evening at Moby Arena.

Colton Iverson scored a game-high 18 points and added nine rebounds to lead the Rams' potent offense. Greg Smith added 14 points, Jon Octeus and Gerson Santo combined to score 25 off the bench and Pierce Hornung finished with 11.

The Rams opened the game on a 10-0 run and took advantage of CSC's shooting woes early on. In the first half, CSU hit 16 of 34 shots, while the Eagles made just three of 24 attempts.

The Eagles shot much better in the second half – connecting on 11 of 26 from the field – but still shot under 30 percent for the game. The Rams also dominated play inside the paint, outscoring CSC 52-18.

David Downey led CSC with 15 points, including four 3-pointers, and Zac Bargen scored seven points and had a team-high six boards.
