CHADRON – Twenty-four more high school seniors have signed National Letters of Intent to play for the Chadron State College football team, head coach Jay Long said Tuesday.

Wednesday, Feb. 6 was the first day high school seniors could sign National Letters of Intent and Institutional Letters of Intent but the Eagles received several more commitments last week.

The Eagles have now signed 65 student-athletes and nine transfers for the 2013 season.

The most recent additions predominantly hail from Colorado, California and Nebraska.

The Colorado signees are Cameron Glon of Littleton, Ed Thomas, Josh Gerstenberg, Draper Sullivan, Evan Strauss all of Colorado Springs, Josh Johnson of Stratton, Matt Barden and Kyle Mudick of Aurora, and Cody Davis and James Martens of Fort Morgan.

The Nebraska additions are Tanner Wintholz of Sidney, Russell Beard of Ashland, Caleb Lundgren of Kearney and Devin Hernandez-Cronk of Ord.

Five more signees are from California. They are Herman Harris of Modesto, teammates Ricky Hodges and Andre Lindsey of Stockton, Muleck Henderson of West Covina and Tavis Guerra of Whittier.

Two more recruits are from Arizona – Nick Colgate of Nogales and Jack Dobyngs of Tucson.

Finally, Dan Probst of Green River, Wyo., Garrett Patterson of Jenks, Okla., and Isaiah Galvan of Edinburg, Texas also signed letters of intent.
